SLOAN AND YOUNG

Two Prescott Men Appointed Governor and Secretary.

Washington, April 6.—President Taft today sent to the Senate the name of Judge Richard E. Sloan to be Governor of Arizona to succeed Joseph H. Kibbey, whose term has expired.

The President also sent to the Senate the name of George U. Young of Prescott to be secretary of the Territory of Arizona, succeeding John H. Page, the present secretary.

It is generally understood here that Judge Sloan has taken the appointment with the understanding that he is to be appointed federal judge for Arizona as soon as that Territory is admitted to Statehood. The judgeship is a life position and the salary is $6,000 per year.

President Taft has known Judge Sloan intimately for years and there has been a close friendship between them. Judge Sloan is a native of Ohio and formerly resided in Cincinnati which is the home of the President.

There is no question but that the Senate will confirm Sloan's appointment.

Judge R. E. Sloan, the new governor of the Territory, has been a resident of Arizona for a quarter of a century. He is a resident of Prescott but is well known in Tucson and throughout Southern Arizona, says the Citizen.

He received his appointment from President Benjamin Harrison, succeeding the late Judge William H. Barnes, who held a judicial position under President Cleveland.

Judge Sloan at the time had been a resident of the Territory but five years, having come here in 1884 from Cincinnati. He located in Phoenix, where he remained for two years. Then he removed to Florence in Pinal county where he was elected district attorney.

For the judgeship he had the endorsement of Senator John Sherman of Ohio, who at that time was one of the Republican national leaders, and he was given the appointment on the latter's recommendation.

He served in a judicial capacity until 1894 when he left the bench, his term having expired and the new appointment lying with President Grover Cleveland, a Democrat. Judge Sloan decided to remove to Prescott where he established a law office. Since that date he has made Prescott his home.

In July, 1897, Judge Sloan was again honored with an appointment to the Arizona bench. He was selected by President McKinley and was re-appointed by President Roosevelt.

Judge Sloan is 52 years old. He was born near Oxford, Ohio, June 22, 1857. He attended Monmouth College and in 1877 received the degree of bachelor of arts from that institution. Later the degree of master of arts was conferred on him.

He left Ohio in 1878, going to Denver, Colo., where he was employed as a newspaperman and where he commenced the study of law.

He returned later to Ohio and completed a course in the Cincinnati Law College, graduating from that institution in 1884. He left shortly afterwards for Arizona, locating in Phoenix.

In addition to having been a member of the Arizona bench Judge Sloan was also a member of the Arizona Legislature, serving in the fifteenth general assembly and being chairman of the judiciary committee.

Judge Sloan is married and the father of three children.

The acceptance of the governorship by Judge Sloan will leave a vacancy on the Arizona bench. Attorney General E. S. Clark of Prescott is mentioned prominently as a probable appointee.

George U. Young's selection as secretary of the Territory is regarded as a favor to Hoyal A. Smith and J. C. Adams, who were striving to have Young named as governor.

Young is secretary of the Republican Territorial organization and is one of the Republican leaders in Northern Arizona.
